Gentlemen:-

We have invited the American Numismatic Association to hold its annual meeting in New York City next year. It is our hope that this action may meet your approval and that you may see your way clear in behalf of your organization to extend an invitation to the national body to convene here in 1917.

Should the meeting be held here we will gladly extend our cooperation to secure its success, as well as the comfort and enjoyment of those in attendance.

It seems to us that this would be a matter of advantage to your own organization, because of the attention it would attract to your Museum and to your work in general and the interest which naturally would be stimulated in consequence.

Very truly yours,

THE MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION OF NEW YORK

Dear Sirs:

Enclosed herewith is a copy of a letter which came to The Merchants' Association of New York today from the American Chamber of Commerce in Shanghai, China.

We are wondering whether or not the coins referred to reached Mr. Newell or your Society, they apparently being forwarded in a registered package in care of the American Express Company.

If the coins did not reach you, we will immediately take up the matter with the American Express Company.

Please believe that we shall be appreciative of any statements you care to send to us in this connection.

Mr. Emmanuel J. Moatsos
P.O.Box No.1530
Shanghai, China

Dear Sir:

A letter is just at hand from the American Chamber of Commerce at Shanghai with regard to a package which was sent to Mr. Edward T. Newell. This package did arrive early in the summer when Mr. Newell was away and remained unopened until now.

I regret to advise that there is absolutely no coin in this collection worth more than a few cents; and the whole lot of coins is practically worthless as the condition of the pieces is too poor for any collector to want them. We are consequently, returning the coins to you by registered mail. Please accept our thanks for sending them to us for inspection. It sometimes happens that in this way we are able to find such specimens which we desire, and we are very glad to have had the opportunity of examining your pieces.

Regretting that your communication received no quicker attention owing to the absence of Mr. Newell, I am,

Very truly yours,

Curator

Attention - Mr. W. H. Mahoney

Gentlemen:

The package of coins sent by Mr. Emmanuel Maotsoe of Shanghai, China, was duly received. Owing to the fact that it was addressed to Mr. Edward T. Newell, who was away at the time, it remained unopened on his desk throughout the summer. He has since examined the coins and the package was returned to China a short while ago by registered mail, so that there is nothing more to be done with regard to the matter.

Very truly yours,

Curator
